This Endorsement is dated 23 April 2021 and will apply to all CGU Office Pack Insurance Policies version CID0122 REV10 04/21 ('Policy') taken out, with a new business effective date on or after 29 May 2021 or with a renewal effective date, on or after 29 May 2021.

The information in this Endorsement should be read with Your Policy and any other applicable Endorsements. This Endorsement replaces Endorsement Edition 3 dated 17 October 2020 version CGU3461 REV0 10/20 if that Endorsement Edition 3 was applied to the Policy.

Changes to your Policy

Your Policy is amended by the following:

Change 1: Calculating your premium

Your Policy is amended by inserting the following new paragraph under the 'Calculating your premium' section on page 2 within the 'Important Information' section:

Your premium, including any discounts You may be eligible for, are subject to minimum premiums. We consider the minimum amount We are prepared to sell the Policy for and may adjust Your premium to ensure it does not fall below the minimum amount. Any discounts will be applied to Your Policy, only to the extent any minimum premium is not reached. This means that any discount You may be eligible for may be reduced. When We determine Your premium on renewal, We may also limit any increases or decreases in Your premium by considering factors such as Your previous year's premium amount.

Change 2: Addition and revision to various General definitions

1. Your Policy is amended by adding the following additional definitions under the 'General definitions' section commencing on page 3:

Communicable Disease means any disease which can be transmitted by means of any substance or agent from any organism to another organism where:

- c) the disease, substance or agent can cause or threaten bodily injury, illness, emotional distress or damage to human health or human welfare or can cause or threaten damage to, deterioration of, loss of value of, marketability of or loss of use of property.

Computer System means any computer, hardware, software, communications system, electronic device (including, but not limited to, smart phone, laptop, tablet, wearable device), server, cloud or microcontroller including any similar system or any configuration of the aforementioned and including any associated input, output, Electronic Data storage device, networking equipment or back up facility, owned or operated by the Insured or any other party.

Cyber Incident means:

- a) any error or omission or series of related errors or omissions involving access to, processing of, use of or operation of any Computer System; or
- b) any partial or total unavailability or failure or series of related partial or total unavailability or failures to access, process, use or operate any Computer System.

Cyber Loss means any loss, damage, liability, claim, cost or expense of whatsoever nature directly or indirectly caused by, contributed to by, resulting from, arising out of or in connection with any Cyber Act or Cyber Incident including, but not limited to, any action taken in controlling, preventing, suppressing or remediating any Cyber Act or Cyber Incident.

- b) viral gastroenteritis, norovirus and rotavirus; or
- c) legionnaires' disease (legionellosis).

2. Your Policy is amended by deleting the definition of 'Electronic Data' on page 4 within the 'General definitions' section and replacing it with the following:

Electronic Data means information, facts, concepts, code or any other information of any kind that is recorded or transmitted in a form to be used, accessed, processed, transmitted or stored by a Computer System.

Change 3:

Replacement of the Electronic data and Date recognition general exclusions

Your Policy is amended by deleting clauses '2. Electronic data' exclusion and '3. Date recognition' on page 5 within the 'General exclusions' section and replacing it with the following:

2. Cyber

Your Policy does not cover any:

- a) Cyber Loss, except that subject to all the terms, conditions, limitations and exclusions to this Policy or any endorsement thereto, this Policy covers Damage to Property Insured and any Time Element Loss directing resulting therefrom where such Damage is directly caused by the following perils if otherwise covered under the Policy:
 - i. theft or burglary;

- b) loss, damage, liability, claim, cost, expense of whatsoever nature directly or indirectly caused by, contributed to by, resulting from, arising out of or in connection with any loss of use, reduction in functionality, repair, replacement, restoration or reproduction of any Electronic Data, including any amount pertaining to the value of such Electronic Data,

Provided however that subject to all the terms, conditions, limitations and exclusions of this Policy or any Endorsement thereto, should Data Processing Media owned or operated by the Insured suffer Damage insured by this Policy, then this Policy will cover the cost to repair or replace the Data Processing Media itself plus the costs of copying the Electronic Data from back up or from originals of a previous generation. These costs will not include research and engineering nor any costs of recreating, gathering or assembling the Electronic Data. If such media is not repaired, replaced or restored the basis of valuation shall be the cost of the blank Data Processing Media. However, this Policy excludes any amount pertaining to the value of such Electronic Data, to the Insured or any other party, even if such Electronic Data cannot be recreated, gathered or assembled.

This exclusion does not apply to Section 5 - General & Products Liability or Section 6 - Employee Dishonesty.

This exclusion clause supersedes and, if in conflict with any other wording in the Policy or any Endorsement thereto having a bearing on Cyber Loss, Electronic Data or Data Processing Media, replaces that wording.

Your Policy is also amended by renumbering the exclusions on page 6 within the 'General exclusions' section as follows:

3. Territorial limitations

4. Unoccupancy

5. Known defects

6. Intentional acts

The content and operation of these exclusions remains the same aside from the numbering.

Important Information

Your duty of disclosure

Before You enter into an insurance contract, You have a duty to tell Us anything that You know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect Our decision to insure You and on what terms.

You have this duty until We agree to insure You.

You have the same duty before You renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract.

You do not need to tell Us anything that:

- reduces the risk We insure You for; or
- is common knowledge; or
- We know or should know as an insurer; or
- We waive Your duty to tell Us about.

If you do not tell us something

If You do not tell Us anything You are required to, We may cancel Your contract if We would not have issued You cover on the same terms had You complied with Your duty of disclosure or reduce the amount We will pay You if You make a claim to the extent We are prejudiced by Your noncompliance, or both.

If Your failure to tell Us is fraudulent, We may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

The course of action We take when You fail to tell Us these things will be considered in each circumstance based on what impact or effect Your failure caused or contributed to a claim or Our decision to issue Your Policy.

The objectives of the Code are:

- to promote better, more-informed relations between Us and You;

Our Commitment to You:

We have adopted and support the Code and are committed to complying with it.

Please contact Us if You would like more information about the Code or the Code Governance Committee.

How to resolve a complaint or dispute

1. Talk to us first

If You have a complaint, the first thing You or Your insurance adviser should do is speak to one of Our staff. If Your complaint relates specifically to a claim, speak with the claims officer managing Your claim.

If the staff member or claims officer are unable to resolve the matter for You, You or Your insurance adviser may speak to a manager. The manager will usually provide You with a response to Your complaint within 15 days. If this timeframe is impractical for any reason such as the need for more information or further investigation, they will discuss with You alternative timeframes.

If You are not satisfied with Our response or We cannot agree with You on alternative timeframes, You can go to Step 2 'Seek a review' set out below.

2. Seek a review

If the matter is still not resolved, the manager will refer You or Your insurance adviser to the relevant dispute handling department or area who will conduct a review of Your dispute and will usually provide You with a response to Your dispute within 15 business days. If this timeframe is impractical, We will discuss with You alternative timeframes.

If You are still not satisfied with Our response to Your dispute or We cannot agree on alternative timeframes, You can go to Step 3 'Seek an external review' set out below.

3. Seek an external review

You are entitled to seek an external review of Our decision. We will provide You with information about options available to You, including, if appropriate, referring You to the external dispute resolution scheme administered by the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA). You will not be able to have Your dispute resolved by the AFCA if Your dispute does not fall within the scope of the AFCA's Terms of Reference.

Further information about Our complaint and dispute resolution procedures is available by contacting Us.

Your cooling-off period

We will refund all premium paid for cover under Your policy if You request cancellation within 21 days of its commencement. To do this, You must advise Us in writing. You will not receive a refund if You have made a claim under Your policy.

Interest on unallocated premium

If We are unable to issue Your insurance when We receive Your application, We are required to hold Your premium in a trust account on Your behalf until Your insurance can be issued. We will retain any interest payable by Our bank to meet, among other things, bank fees and other bank costs We incur in operating the account.

Calculating your premium

In order to calculate Your premium, We take various factors into consideration, including the level of cover requested and the property to be insured.

Factors that increase the risk to Us generally increase the premium (for example, high claims experience or higher Sum Insured) and factors that reduce the risk to Us generally reduce the premium (for example, low claims experience or lower sums insured).

Your premium also includes amounts that take into account Our actual or estimated obligation to pay any relevant compulsory government charges, taxes or levies (for example stamp duty, GST and fire services levy). Where We are required to pay an estimated amount (for example, for fire services levies) based on criteria set by the State Governments, We allocate to the Policy Our estimate of the amount We will be required to pay. We may under or over recover in any particular year but We will not adjust Your premium because of this. You can ask Us for more details if You wish.

When You apply for this insurance, You will be advised of the total amount payable, when it needs to be paid and how it can be paid. This amount will be clearly set out in Your Schedule, which will be sent to You within 5 days of the issue of this product. If You fail to pay, We may reduce any claim payment by the amount of premium owing and/or cancel the Policy in accordance with the cancellation process outlined in the General Conditions section.

You may also be required to pay an Excess in the event of a claim under this Policy. The amount of any Excess will be shown on Your Schedule.

Taxation information

This insurance is subject to the Goods and Services Tax (GST). The GST amount will be specified in the Schedule. If You are registered for GST purposes, You may be able to claim an input tax credit in respect of GST We collect from You. Where You are registered for GST purposes, You should calculate Your proposed sums insured with reference to the GST status of each item of property to be insured. Depending on the GST status of each property to be insured, the sums insured may or may not include a GST component. You should seek expert advice on the application of the GST to Your particular circumstances.

Details about the GST in relation to a payment under this Policy are shown under the "Claims procedure" section of this Policy 2

Underinsurance

It is Your responsibility to ensure that the sums insured for any Vehicle or property Insured under this Policy are adequate. Sums insured should reflect the new replacement value of any Vehicle or property Insured. If sums insured are not adequate, claims may not be paid in full.

You should review the adequacy of sums insured periodically during the Period of Insurance and prior to renewal each year. Inadequacy of sums insured can present significant issues of financial hardship. If You are unable to establish the adequacy of sums insured, You should seek assistance from Your insurance adviser.

Settlement of claims applicable to Part B

Item 1 - Increased cost of working

We will pay the additional expenses necessarily and reasonably incurred during the Indemnity Period, with Our written consent, for the sole purpose of resuming or maintaining the normal operation of the Business, but not the cost of reinstatement of data.

However:

- a) If a claim has been paid or became payable in the period for which an adjustment is to be made under this clause, the amount of the claim will be included in the calculation of Gross Income earned for the period.

- a) the insurance cover under this additional benefit is limited to a period of ten (10) days from the date of such failure
- b) We will not be liable in respect of any increase in cost of working or loss of Gross Income incurred during the first thirty six (36) hours immediately following such failure

- c) We will not be liable in respect of failure caused by riot, strike, lock-out, civil commotion, or vandalism, unless arising solely out of physical destruction, loss or Damage to the telecommunications data transmission networks (not being physical destruction, loss or Damage resulting solely from cessation of work).
